Pinkerton Academy's Personal Electronic Device Contract and Acceptable Use for Digital and Electronic Communication for Students Acknowledgement Form

My Use of Personal Electronic Devices

- Each time I use my personal device in the classroom I must have teacher permission. If I violate this privilege by using it without permission it may result in suspension or termination of use of the device and/or disciplinary actions.
- All the school rules applying to my use of technology also apply to this device.
- I must also comply with specific instructional rules created by the teacher for each use.
- If I am granted permission to use my device, I understand that the teacher may ask to inspect my work on the device at any time.
- I understand that I bring my device at my own risk and that the school is not responsible if my device is damaged, lost, or stolen.
- My device can only be used by me and not shared with any other student.
- For photography or video purposes I must follow the teacher's directions exactly. Students who violate the privacy rights of others, by photographing or videotaping them without the teacher's permission, will be subject to serious administrative actions.
